

EARTHWISE

Salvage Bulletin

August 28th 2009

It's a SALE-a-Bration!
only on
Friday the 11th of September

SALEbration

Can you believe it has been 3 years since we moved from 1st & Lander? The staff can't either.. our backs still hurt from moving all of our wonderful junk! We are loving our digs here on 4th Ave, and thought it was about time to really celebrate the move.. so Stroll on down and save big- with savings of up to half off on a majority of the store! Get to know one of our non-profit partners- Historic Seattle. A one day only event with extended store hours into the evening, after-hours BBQ, and a chance to sit around and talk 'old-house' with like minded folks.

Stroll on down and meet Historic Seattle

Earthwise has been working with Historic Seattle over the past several years, as one their corporate sponsors. When Earthwise salvages a home, and the owner chooses a tax-donation receipt, Earthwise pays Historic Seattle for the salvage job. We love their mission and the great work that they do to preserve Seattle heritage. We were thinking it would be a great opportunity to have our customers get a chance to learn about what they do too!.

Historic Seattle will be here during our 'Sale-a-bration' to answer any questions you might have, or to help you sign up to become a member. Earthwise will be sponsoring several different raffles on Friday the 11th, all proceeds benefit Historic Seattle. Take a chance to win big! One dollars gets a chance for an item in our treasure chest. Five dollars gets a chance for a $100.00 Earthwise gift certificate 20 dollars gets a chance for a super-duper special secret prize
