2009 Bungalow Fair
September 26 & 27

was a big success

As seen in the photo above, there was a line up of people waiting to enter the 12th Annual Bungalow Fair. We had over 50 exhibitors, 875+ attendees and nearly 100 people involved in making this event a memorable experience. We had attendees from across the country and even from Canada.

The success of this annual event is not possible without the fabulous work of our volunteers who commit to a weekend of service. This year our hats go off to the following individuals:

35th Picnic! Friday, August 14th

It seemed like everyone enjoyed the 35th Anniversary Picnic held at the Good Shepherd Center. Good food and good conversations.

Thank you Mary Halecki for organizing the event and Marissa Natkin for the photos.

We welcome Eugenia Woo as Historic Seattle's newest staff member. She is the Director of Preservation Services.

Eugenia worked as a preservation consultant at Artifacts Consulting in Tacoma and as a Community Development Specialist in the City of Seattle's Department of Neighborhoods. Eugenia is a co-founder and board member of Docomomo WEA; a board member of the Vernacular Architecture Forum; and former board member of the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation.

Historic Seattle celebrated with big wins at the Seafair Allstate Milk Carton Derby in Green Lake on July 11th. Our boat, crowned with our version of the P-I Globe, won Best Design and came in 1st in the Group/Commercial category.

Kudos are extended to volunteers Jim & Sharon Price who contributed 50 hours: constructing the boat, donating empty milk cartons, and adhering the cartons to the skeleton. As Sharon says "I was there, alone with the boat, when the balloon popped just hours before the race." It was her quick actions and Mark Willson's resourcefulness that put plan B into effect resulting in having the boat ready for the following days race. They are hoping that in future years others will help with this very exciting, energetic and fun event.

Welcome NEW Volunteers

Join us in welcoming two new members to the Historic Seattle Council: Rico Quirindango and Karen Breckenridge (see photos to the right). Their bio's are available at www.historicseattle.org > Contact Us > Council.

And more NEW Volunteers ...

In addition to new Council members, we also have additions to our volunteer pool.

Margaret Berman

is working with Kji Kelly on a building energy consumption project

Jean Werner

a long time member, has returned to volunteer. Welcome back Jean!

Nancy Stillger

is assisting with our efforts on Washington Hall.

Patrick Beringer, Genevieve Ford & Joan Golston volunteered at the 2009 Bungalow Fair.

We look forward to their involvement in future events.

Josh Mahar & Lynn Kim

have joined the development team as student interns.

Jim Bainbridge

is now working with our development team on special writing projects.

This past spring 10 students from Bellevue College, Spring Practicum class focused their energies on the research portion of Historic Seattle's 'Preserve it Yourself' program. They contributed over 1480 hours of service. Thank you Margaret Berman, Drew Day, Evgeniz Angelova, John Pacheco, Kim Otto, Kurt Youenes, Mark Willisma, Matt Cirineo, Olga Ehrhardt and Rosita McCullough!

CURRENT VOLUNTEER NEEDS!

There are many ways to be engaged - the challenge is finding the perfect fit with your interests and talents. Historic Seattle is committed to matching people with good intentions with the right volunteer opportunity!

RECEPTIONISTS needed - We currently need people who have weekday availability and are willing to spend 3-4 hours a week at the Dearborn House working assisting staff with answering phones, data entry, and general support.

Media Assistance - Increasingly we are finding that media, traditional and on the web, are looking for information to be posted independently by organizations wishing to get the word out. That requires, putting press release information online - electronically. We are looking for a lead volunteer to work with our Program Director to help get the word out electronically. The ideal volunteer is comfortable working on computers and especially with posting information on web sites.

Audio Visual Lead - We need a Lead Volunteer who has knowledge of audio visual equipment (computers, projectors, etc.) who would be willing to spearhead equipment issues at various lectures, events, and other projects. We also welcome someone is skilled at videotaping our events throughout the year.

Act NOW! Help us fill these volunteer vacancies!

Bob Purser was a volunteer and a friend of Historic Seattle. The artist, designer, craftsman, husband, step-father, brother, and friend past away on September 17th, 2009. He earned BA in Art (1962) and a PhD (1976). He was the 1st art instructor at Bellevue College where he taught for 43 years. Just this past spring he 'got hitched' to his long time friend Robin Jones and was in the process of relocating to B.C. Canada.

There will be a memorial service Sunday, October 25, Daniels Recital Hall (811 5th Ave Seattle) at 4pm. To honor Bob, guests are encouraged to wear bright colors, please.
